The pleasant method and beneficial effects of the well known remedy. Syrup or Figs, manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co., illustrate the value of obtaining the liquid laxative principles of plants known to be medicinally laxative and presenting them in the form most refreshing to the taste and acceptable to the system. It Rev. H. A. Breeden, of Des Moines, Ia., addressed the meeting, and set forth forcibly the great advantage of education over reformation, and that it was a serious mistake to educate a child intellectually and not morally. He pointed out the great force of the Sunday school tive, cleansing the system effectually, out the great force of the Sunday school and Christian Endeavor work in training the morals and character of young peopie, stating that it was only second to the home in this great work. He closed his address by calling attention to the marked strength of the Sunday-school in his home church, and urging more zeal and enthusiasm in the great laxative. field before his hearers.

The reports from the various schools showed a total enrolment of 1.0% in the schools. The Third Christian Sunday school secured the banner for the best

Misses Phillips Pierce and Tsylor read short essays on the relations of the Sun-day-gehool work to the Christian Endeaver Society, the home, and the Church, Messrs, Adams and Subject spoke on the young man and the Sunday school and the ministry. Mr. Breeden preached at Seventh-Street

Stiff, secretary. The schools seemed to have attended on masse, so that the church was not large enough to contain the consregation, and many were unable to enter.

The exercises were opened with singing by the school and prayer by Mr. A. J. Gary, after which there was a solo by Mr. Thompson and a song, "Wenry Gleaners," by five young ladies, "Never Say Good-By in Heaven' was sung with fine effect by a quartette of boys from the school. The chair was then taken by the superintendent of the school, Mr. George M. Rogers, who conducted the Children's Day exercises, which proved very entertaining, the singing being especially enjoyed.

The next meeting of the society will be held at Fairmount-Avenue church on the second Sunday in June.

The Board of Directo's will meet at Broad-Street church on the fourth Sunday fits meeting Sunday afternoon at the Leigh-Street church, Mr. Arthur B. Clarke in the chair. The attendance was very good, indeed.

The exercises opened with Scripture reading by Rev. J. O. Kirk and prayer by Rev. Jere Witnerspoon, D. D., pastor of the Grac-Street Presbyterian church. The reports for the month of April showed a marked increase in attendance over March, but the comparison with April of last year showed a slight falling off. PRESBYTERIAN MASS-MEETING.
Sunday night at the Grace-Street Presbyterian church there' was a great mass-meeting of Presbyterians. This meeting was for the purpose of devising some plan to advance the Presbyterian Church in this city and throughout East Hamover Presbytery. The meeting was presided over by Dr. Witherspoon, who opened the meeting with a prayer of invocation. After good singing and appropriate music by the choir of the church and an appropriate prayer by Rev. J. Calvin Stewart, Dr. Witherspoon introduced the Rev. Donald Guthrie, pastor of the Second church, who delivered a fine discourse, taking the theoretical side of the question as to the duty in endeavoring to advance the Church, and thereby the Kingdom of Christ throughout this presbytery, Mr. Guthrie spoke with much force, and made a deep impression upon the congregation.

Dr. Kerr, who spoke next, went into details as to the practical part of what the Presbyterian Church had done in the past year, giving a very interesting account of each minister's work and results. The speaker was particular to announce at the outset that the congregations were not massed that high to pay off a debt, "for we owe hothing," said the speaker, but he want do let them know what the Home Mission Committee intended to do next year, and wanted the congregation to give the committee before the close of the meeting $1,000.

After Dr. Kerr's address, made with so much earnestness, slips of paper were handed throughout the congregation for subscriptions, and resulted in raising in cash and subscriptions a little over $200.

NUMBER OF CONVERSIONS.

The meeting of the Methodist ministers at Centenary yeste-day was one of the most spirited and enthuslastic meetings held this year. In addition to the usual routine matters, there were several interesting discussions of new business. Rev. Messrs. J. C. Reed and B. M. Beckham offered a resolution, which was adopted, extending the sympathy of the body to Rev. J. T. Routten in the recent death of his only daughter. Rev. Mr. Routten was deeply moved by this tender expression of sympathy, and responded feelingly.

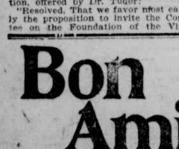

The news of Dr. R. N. Siedd's continued serious illness, and of the illness of Rev. S. C. Shearer, paster of Hasker Memorial church, in this city, was received with expressions of profound sympathy and regret was meeting had not long adjourned when the message came from Atlanta that Dr. Siedd was dead.

Rev. R. G. James, who has been con-Rev. R. G. James, who has been confined in the Retreat for the Sick for several weeks, was reported better.

There was an animated discussion upon the location of the proposed orphanage of the Virginia Conference, many of the ministers contending, with good reasons, that Richmond is the very best place for that institution. The discussion ended in the adoption of the following resolution, offered by Dr. Tudor:

"Resolved, That we favor most earnestly the proposition to invite the Committee on the Foundation of the Virginia
